Are YOU ready to start making serious money from your own Internet business?

If you are, then when you realise how easy it is, you'll wonder why you didn't do it years ago.

It's sad but true that many people, even though desperate to make some extra money, don't even try to get started in their own Internet enterprise. And the main reason is...they think it is too difficult.

They think you have to have lots of technical knowledge to be able sell products online, and that's just not true.

Some people even think you have to be good at operating a computer and need to know how to use all kinds of different software, and that's just not the case either.

The truth is...absolutely anyone can make money from the Internet...but it's a lot easier if you know the secrets to doing it the right way.

And the right way is to set up a small business that virtually runs on autopilot and brings in multiple streams of income 24 hours a day...every day!

Situation Vacant...£100,000 Per Annum...No Experience Necessary

If you saw the above ad in the press, would you apply? £100,000 is a lot of money but...you would still be working for someone else.

And what's worse is...you would be expected to sacrifice a lot of your valuable time and consistently put in a 100% faultless effort.

So, why bother when you can make £100,000 working for yourself? And all for just 2 or 3 hours a day and with just a fraction of the effort!

Now just about anyone can do this because you...

- ✓ Don't need any previous selling experience
- ✓ You don't need to be a computer 'techie'
- ✓ You don't need any business premises
- ✓ You don't need to employ any staff
- ✓ You don't have to meet or speak to your customers
- ✓ You need very little money to get started...less than £5
- ✓ You don't need a merchant account
- ✓ You don't need to buy any stock
- ✓ And you don't have to pack or post anything

So, if you want to get started in your own Internet business, what's stopping you? You don't even have to give up your full-time job, because you can start in your spare time. Then give up your job when you're making the kind of money you want.

How much would you like to make each week? £500? £1,000? £1,500? or even £2,000 or more? You decide!

Thousands of people have already done this, and many of them are making up to 10 times what they were being paid in their regular job. You know you'll never get rich working for someone else don't you?

Even millionaire marketers were stunned by these amazing revelations

If you don't know the first thing about making money online, you soon will. The Traders' Edge! is an exclusive interview with one of the most successful Internet traders this decade. But that's not all...

This ex schoolteacher is 'grilled' by some of the world's most successful millionaire marketers, and even they are totally blown away by what she reveals...and so will you be.

This lady is fearless, frank and above all genuinely interested in helping you make money online.

She openly explains how to set up a very simple online business for a few pennies, and turn it into an unstoppable 24/7 cash generating machine, bringing in thousands each and every week.

Her name is Sydney Johnston. She has become so well-known over recent months that people are now begging her to teach them her secret methods and strategies, that have made her so successful.

But it wasn't always that way. When she first started out on her enterprising Internet adventure, some 9 years ago, she made just about every possible mistake you could imagine.

Many lesser people would have given up, but she stuck to her guns and made it work. Now all you have to do, if you want to follow her lead, is to listen to her advice...then listen very carefully to the secret methods and strategies she uses.

You too could be debt free and financially independent within months

In just a moment, you'll find out more about this amazing lady, but first consider this...

If you were to start your new Internet business today, and follow her advice, in just a few months from now you could...

- ✓ Give up your job
- ✓ Work at home during the hours that suit you
- ✓ Make up to 10 times more money than you were previously earning
- ✓ Pay off all your debts
- ✓ Buy a brand new car
- ✓ Treat yourself and your family to a luxurious holiday, anywhere in the world
- ✓ And have spare cash sitting in the bank...for any other little luxuries you might desire...

Want a plasma TV? Surround sound music system? A new kitchen or bathroom? A professionally landscaped garden? You could have all this and more.

All it takes is a little effort to get started...plus some invaluable insider information from Sydney Johnston...The Internet Marketing Queen.

Discover how you can secretly tap into this multi billion £££ market!

It's a fact that more and more people are buying products and services online, and this trend will continue to grow year on year.

Hundreds of thousands of small traders are making huge amounts of money servicing this very hungry market, which consists of many millions of potential customers...worldwide.

Incredibly, the latest figures indicate that UK Internet buyers alone spent more than £10.9 billion on products and services last year, and that figure is expected to double by 2010 (Source: BBC Business News).

There's no doubt that many niche interests and massive markets exist on the Internet, but how would you tap into them and make a small fortune for yourself? Here's what Sydney Johnston did...

She first started buying and selling leather briefcases online. She only made about $3 profit on each one...but then she was selling hundreds of them every week.

The problems she faced with this business then spiralled out of control. Imagine having to pack and send off hundreds of briefcases every week. And if that isn't bad enough, imagine what would happen if your supplier let you down and you couldn't fulfill your orders.

Well, that's exactly what did happen to Sydney, resulting in complaints from hundreds of unhappy customers. Now, that's no way to operate a successful Internet business.

So she simply changed her trading name and set about getting better organised. And the more organised she became, the more time she had available to develop and expand her online enterprise...secretly!

The ultimate online autopilot business that generates unstoppable sales

Sydney tapped into a few niche markets and then discovered the world's greatest online traffic machine, which was sending frantic customers to her in droves.

Whatever they wanted to buy, she was able to sell them. But what turned out to be better than just making one off sales, was that she found a way to sell them similar products over and over, which turned her online business into an avalanche of flowing cash.

She discovered a way to get all the products her customers ordered, packed and delivered to her customers without having to do anything herself.

She began building multiple lists of customers, and created a stealth marketing strategy, which virtually guarantees continued sales every single week.

She simply found out what people wanted to buy and then, more importantly, found a way to get the products to them...without having to pay for anything up front and without having to get involved in all that packing and postage nonsense.

She had discovered the ultimate online autopilot business that simply generated unstoppable sales...and began making so much money it's almost obscene.

Incredibly, Sydney found a way to get 15 million views on a website, which was created for her, and which listed her product, but only cost her a few pennies. All she had to do was add a description of the product and upload a photo.

She explains how you can do exactly the same...and the whole process takes nothing more than a few minutes.

A system that has proved to be successful beyond all expectations

Now she spends a few hours each week, clicking a mouse and counting her cash, which amounts to many thousands of pounds.

Exactly how she got to where she is now is revealed in infinite detail in this incredible 2 CD set entitled... The Traders' Edge!

Remember! Sydney Johnston was a school teacher. She knew absolutely nothing about buying and selling, let alone Internet marketing. She started from scratch and learned the hard way.

Now she has tapped into massive markets and her business generates multiple streams of income, every day on virtual autopilot.

In her exclusive interview, she tells all. What to do and what not to do. What products to sell and where to get them.

How to easily find eager customers and how to get them to pay you up front for their orders. How to get others to do all the donkey work, while you just sit back and enjoy the profits.

All you have to do is listen...then copy her simple system. A system that has proved to be successful beyond all imagination.

And remember!

You don't need any previous experience and you don't need to invest any more than a few pennies for each product you promote.

Setting up a similar business to Sydney Johnston's is child's play, but if you're still not sure... you'll find all the answers you need in The Traders' Edge!

Many people who discover the real secrets of success are totally overwhelmed by the simplicity of starting a highly profitable Internet business. Be one of them!
